SECTION B

51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Every Friday of every week is a special day at Seeta Junior School-Mbalala. This is because most of the parents are allowed to pick their children for either a weekend or medication. However, those pupils who are picked rejoice here and there as they sit comfortably in their parents' car. They travel home with their parents. Those who are not picked remain at school doing their homework. Last Friday, Nabutono Jane, a primary four girl was not picked. She cried as the other children were laughing at her. She was not picked because all her parents had gone to Merikit Village to attend the wedding ceremony of her aunt, Akoth Mary Florence. The head teacher called Jane to her office and gave her sweets, cake and her phone to play some games.

Jane regained her lost love from the head teacher. However, she didn't know the password that the head teacher had set to unlock her phone. Jane trembled in fear thinking that she had spoilt the head teacher's phone. Hadn't it been the secretary, she wouldn't have known how to unlock it. she played games until she slept. When she woke up, she thanked the head teacher for being a loving teacher. She promised to bring a doll to the head teacher.
