LESSON 2

REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS.

These are pronouns which show that the action is being done or something has been done to a person.

These pronouns use the word “self” in singular and “selves” in plural.

Examples:

himself,	itself
yourself,	ourselves
myself,	yourselves
herself,	themselves

When “self” is added to my, your, him, her, it and “selves” to our, your, them; we get what are called compound personal pronouns

Examples:

Singular	Plural
I hurt myself.	We hurt ourselves.
You will hurt yourself.	You will hurt yourself.
He hurt himself.
She hurt herself.
The horse hurt itself.

LESSON 3

CONDITIONAL CLUASES.

Conditional clauses contain the word “if” or “unless”.

“Conditional clause” are also called “if clause”.

IF (1)

If clause 1 or conditional clause 1 is formed in the order below.

If + present tense + future tense.

Points to remember:

- (i) When an “if clause” comes first, put a comma after it.
- (ii) When the “main clause” comes first, a comma is not needed.
- (iii) We commonly use a future simple tense in the “main clause”, and the present simple tense in the “if clause”

Examples:

1. If I pass exams, I will fly to London

If clause                      main clause
2. The teacher will punish us, if we fail the work.

Main clause                      if clause

NB: The condition to be fulfilled is contained in the “if clause” because that is where the word “if” is.

On the other hand, the action to take place is in the main clause.

EXERCISE:

1. If the plane ....., we shall go. (come)
2. Geoffrey will .....(find) you here if you .....a bit. (wait)

WEEK 6

LESSON 1.

IF (2) OR CONDITIONAL CLAUSE 2

Conditional sentence or clause (2) is used to express a condition which is impossible and whose result we are only imagining.

We do not expect it to come true.

In IF (2), one is just imagining what would happen if the impossible came true. The condition cannot be fulfilled at all. e.g

- (i) If I was God, I would leave man to live for ever. (but, it is impossible to become God)
- (ii) If I were you, I wouldn't eat posho. (but, it is impossible to turn into someone.)

Requirements:

1. We use the past simple tense in the "if clause" and a "wouldn't" and a verb in the present tense in the main clause.
2. We often use "were" instead of "was" in order to put emphasis on the nature of the impossibility

EXERCISE 1

Use the correct form of the verb given in brackets to complete the sentences.

1. If it ....., the crops would grow well. (rain)
2. If I ..... Teacher, I would not beat children. (are)
3. If I were a snake, I would ..... all the thieves. (bite)
4. If I ..... a fish, I would not be caught. (is)
5. If the sun ..... to rise, people would not go for work. (fail)
6. If I two heads, I would think faster. (have)
7. She would tell me if she ..... Time (get)
8. If I ..... in Australia, I would be rich. (live)
9. If I ..... At the station early, the train would not leave me. (arrive)
10. If the sun ..... from the west, people would wake up late. (rise)
11. If she ..... To me, I would be very happy. (write)
