My name is Kisakye Martha. I stay in Namungo with my parents. Last term, I joined a new school. It is Sema Primary School. It is found in Mpigi.

On the day of reporting, I woke up very well. I prepared myself and packed all my things. We used a motorcycle with my mother to the taxi park. We boarded a taxi. The taxi set off at 10.00am. We drove for about fifteen minutes and we met a roundabout at Bwaise. We then turned left and drove for one hour up to Mpita.

We then got out of the taxi at a junction in Zita. We moved straight for ten minutes. Then we saw a big blue building on our left handside. That building is my new school. There is a church called St. Ana opposite the school. Near the church is a tree with very large branches. I love my school because it is very big.
